Protest at the Missions to the United Nations of all 9 nuclear armed countries and nonviolent civil resistance at the U.S. Mission to the U.N. during the First Review Conference of the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons

From Monday, November 30 through Friday, December 4, 101 countries that have ratified or signed the TPNW will meet at the United Nations in New York City. They will review the progress of the Treaty during its first five years in force and plan next steps for expanding its reach and moving toward its goal of global, verifiable nuclear disarmament.

None of the nine nuclear armed nations will be there, nor the countries huddling under their nuclear umbrellas.

WHO: The Atlantic Life Community, NYC War Resisters League, New York Catholic Worker

WHAT: Walk to the Missions to the United Nations of all nine nuclear armed countries culminating with nonviolent civil resistance at the U.S. Mission to the U.N.

WHEN: By 10:30 am, Thursday, December 3, 2026, two groups have gathered; one at the Chinese Mission to the U.N., the other at the Pakistani Mission. At 10:30 they begin walk to other missions before converging at 12:00 noon at the U.S. Mission.

WHERE: Meet at either the Chinese Mission to the U.N. (corner First Ave. and E. 35th St.) or the Pakistani Mission to the U.N. (Central Park side of 65th St. and 5th Ave.), then walk to other missions, ending at the U.S. Mission (First Ave. and 45th St.)

WHY: Nine countries own weapons capable of murdering millions of people at any moment and plunging the planet into a nuclear winter that could starve billions. The Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons offers humanity a way out of such madness. Participants will call the leaders of all nine nuclear armed countries to together join the TPNW and make the world safer for children and other living things.
